

TRVEA presents Spring Fun & Games

Saturday, April 8, 2023

at Driftwood Ranch, 2191 Hollister St, San Diego, CA 92154

We all love hitting the trail on a glorious Spring Day!! Increasingly, we share the trail with other users and sharing can have challenges. We can all best enjoy a trail and be safe if we understand what to expect from other trail users. An opportunity to practice calmly in an arena with potentially horse-scary things we might encounter can help.

Equestrians have a responsibility to get their horses used to scary obstacles and to ride safely; mountain bikers should be aware of how explosive and easily frightened horses can be which is why trail etiquette includes yielding to horses.
